

REAL KING

Two billion tune in as Madrid hails Becks

From NEIL SYSON in Madrid

DAVID Beckham's reign in Spain began yesterday — as delirious fans hailed him King of Real Madrid.

Thousands flocked to the club's training ground as Becks was officially unveiled as a Real player.

And two billion TV viewers worldwide saw the 28-year-old England skipper proudly parade in his new No.23 shirt at a showbiz-style ceremony.

He told them: "Football is everything to me — and joining Real Madrid is a dream come true."

Messiah of Madrid — Pages 4 and 5

GREAT 4-PAGE PICTURE PULLOUT INSIDE

